Class of 1999

This year's edition of Footprints is dedicated to Dr. Margaret Jennings. As a member of the St. Joseph's College community for over twenty-five years, Dr. Jennings has invested her time, energy, and knowledge in the many lives she has touched. With patience and understanding, Dr. Jennings has challenged and enlightened her students.

Dr. Jennings, we, the Class of 1999, dedicate this yearbook to you. With your humorous and optimistic philosophy you have truly helped us to experience the times of our lives.

Time

of

Your

Life

*Another turning point, a fork stuck in the road.
Time grabs you by the wrist, directs you where to go.
So make the best of this test, and don't ask why.
It's not a question, but a lesson learned in time.*

*It's something unpredictable, but in the end is right.
I hope you had the time of your life.*

*So take the photographs, and still frames in your mind.
Hang it on the shelf of good health and good time.
Tattoos of memories and dead skin on trial.
For what it's worth, it was worth all the while.*

I hope you had the time of your life.

Presenting the Class of 99^{SJC}9

To My Parents,

Thank you for your unvarering encouragement and support.

Special Thanks to:

Terry, Aaron, and Quincy for all the times you waited for me until I got out of class. The memories I will cherish. I love you.

Kirame:

Did you ever know that

You're my hero

You're everything

I would like to be

I can fly

Higher than an eagle

You are the wind

Beneath my wings

—Bette Midler

Thank You!!

I would not have come this far without you.

To Mom and Tori,

Thank you for supporting me in everything I have ever done. Without you I would not be where I am today. I love you.

To John,

You are someone I can talk to, trust, and confide in. You are the definition of a friend. I love you.

To Danny,

A lifetime isn't long enough to prove my love for you.

Love forever,

Maria

To all of those who have believed in me, Mom, Dad, and Cono; all I have accomplished is a result of your constant support.

Even though my Nanny is not physically here, I love and miss her. Thank you Mom for everything you have done for me. If it wasn't for you, I wouldn't have survived my college years. To Russell, thank you for giving up your time to help me through my Senior year. To Grampa, thank you for driving me everywhere I needed to go and getting me there on time. You are the best Grandfather ever. To Dare, I couldn't have asked for a better boyfriend who loves and supports me.

To my friends in school, even though we may go our separate ways, the memories we made will always keep us together. I will always love you guys.

To Mom and Dad,

Thank you so much for supporting me for the past four years. You have helped me accomplish my goals and fulfill my dreams. Your inspiration has helped me to succeed. I love you both and appreciate all that you have done for me.

Grandma, thank you for always motivating me to do my best. I hope that I have made you proud. I love you.

John and Anthony, you have always believed in me, helped me, and put a smile on my face. You are not only my brothers, but my friends. I love you both. Thanks.

Mom and Dad,

Thank you for providing and supporting me in all that I do. I value and appreciate all you have sacrificed and done for me. I love you both!

Sal and Christine,

You both have helped me in so many ways from my school work to my social life!! Thank you so much! No matter where I am please know you can count on me the way you have done for me! I love you!

To my friends from St. Joe's,

Thanks for a great time in the cafe and everywhere else we ventured. You all were great to me. Good luck in life. Call me when we can open "our school." Love ya, Patricia

Dear Mom,

We finally did it. Thank you for being my mother, my father, and my best friend. Always remember the best is yet to come.

To Mom:

Thank you for always telling me to "keep going" and to "never give up." With this inspiration and drive I'm able to take on the world.

To Aunt Vicki and Uncle Ed:

Thank you for helping me realize my worth.

To Sean, Dawn, Ryan, Shannon, and all my cousins:

Thank you for always being there and offering an ear.

To Justin:

You are the future, and with you in the world it will be a bright one.

To all my friends at St. Joe's (The Round Table, Annie and Chris):

In a school full of cliques, thank you for making me feel welcomed. I hope you don't lose touch.

Love,
 Ian

*The years of fun have passed us by,
Like all things in life we can't ask why.
To grammar and high school and college we went,
Without ever thinking of what it all meant.
The days and the nights spent surrounded by friends,
We never really thought those times would end.
We talked about school and how we wished we were done,
But we never stopped to think that we'd miss all the fun.*

Thanks Mom and Dad! I love you both and I hope I have made you proud.

Richie, thanks for always supporting me. I love you for who you are and who you allow me to be.

Marc, I'm finally out of the house. Will you miss me? I'll miss you.

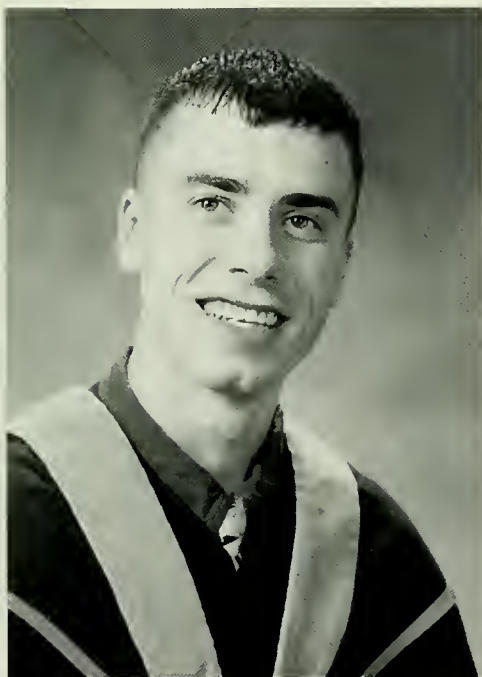

And to the gang at the lunch table, you know who you are, thanks for the study groups, lesson plan ideas, and for listening to all my wedding talk.

I love you all!

CONGRATULATIONS
TO THE CLASS OF 1999
FROM YOUR FRIENDS IN THE LIBRARY

Dearest Florence,

I may not say it as often as I should but I think that you know that I am very proud of you and how you have grown and matured during these past four years at college.

I hope you know that I only want the best for you and I will always be there for you with my love and support.

Be proud of yourself, you have put in a lot of hard work to reach this point in your life and you have earned all the credit and praise and attention that are coming your way. But even more importantly, you have earned the right to believe in yourself and your accomplishments. You have so much to offer and so much to look forward to.

Grandpa, Russell, and I know you will be able to meet the challenge of your life-long dream of becoming an educator. You have chosen a most rewarding profession, dedicated to stimulating young people's minds and shaping the lives of the next generation.

Good luck in all that you strive to do, you are an excellent student, my best friend, and a wonderful person to know.

Love Always and Forever,

Mom

Love from Gramp and Russell, too

All of your strength - devotion - and - eagerness to learn could teach all of us a valuable lesson.

C A R O L Y N

You have made your mother and father two of the proudest people in the world. Not only will they be able to brag about your dancing but now you have added your college graduation to the list. Mommy can never say enough about her little girl and Daddy's smile always tells you just how proud he is of you. Who knew you would develop into such a beautiful, respectable woman. Just remember---you will always be Mommy and Daddy's little girl. Well, as for me, you'll always be my little sister. You know anything you put your mind to you can accomplish. Someone once said: "I have the same dream now as I did when I was a little girl.

I want to rule the world." - Madonna

That is the motivation that we can all live by. Carolyn, teach the world everything you stand for because "You can RULE the WORLD."

Dear Lisa,

Congratulations! I am so proud of you and wish you all the love, peace, and happiness that life has to offer. You have worked very hard and have greatly succeeded. I know your Dad is smiling down on you today.

All My Love,
Mom

Brendan,

Words can not express how much you mean to me. You are my very best friend and have given me everything I could possibly want or ever hope for. My life is complete with you in it. I am so very proud of you and you truly deserve the best of everything. You have my heart and always will. You will forever be my Punkin'. I love you with all my heart.

Yours Forever,
Jill

Dearest Rayna,

We, along with your family and friends, just want to say how proud we are of all your accomplishments.

We know you still have an aggressive goal to meet, and you just keep moving toward it. We know you will reach it!

Congratulations and Happy Graduation!

How many people do you know who hate their jobs?

I often find it surprising to learn just how many people go about their professional careers being thoroughly dissatisfied. Such was the case with my wife, Linda Houston. After a successful ten year business career, Linda decided that her work wasn't fulfilling. Rather than going on and complaining about her situation, she found the fortitude and conviction to make a change. Upon returning to school, Linda not only succeeded . . . but excelled, making the Dean's List and the Honor Society. I am most proud of her endeavor to become a teacher, and I couldn't love her more.

Charlie Houston

Megan,

I am so lucky for someone as beautiful and loving as you to have come into my life. You make me the happiest man in the world and I promise you that for the rest of our life together, I will make your life heaven on earth. I love you with all my heart and soul.

Tom

Dear Diana,

Just a note to tell you how proud we are of you in all that you have achieved. I'm sure that you know how proud Grandpa, Nonno, and Nonna would have been to see you graduate.

Please don't short change yourself in all that you strive for. Congratulations on a very large milestone in your life.

All Our Love,
Mom, Dad, Joanna, and Grandma

My Dearest Little Sister Lisa:

I am so proud of you. You are a gorgeous, intelligent, and kind-hearted person. You are also my best friend. Congratulations Baby. I love you so much. You will always do great things.

*Your big sister,
Irene Zopoth*

To Our Baby Girl Lisa:

Congratulations!! We are both very proud of you and we know you will make an awesome teacher. You will always succeed at whatever you put your heart and mind to. Always remember how much we love you and how proud we are of you.

*Love,
Mom and Dad Zopoth*

Dear J.J.

I can still remember the days when I used to run track and there was a little voice in the stands cheering for me. That little voice was you!!

Well today I am going to be the one cheering. The first one of us to graduate from college. You deserve a standing ovation. All of your hard work has finally paid off. You won the race this time!!! If I could give you a gold medal for everything you have done then I would. But you earned that on your own!!!

I wish you the best of luck in everything you do. Strive for your dreams and they will all come true.

I Love You — Your Sister
Christine

Dear J.J.,

A son provides many ways of pride and enjoyment. From those very first steps to the culmination of his schooling, then on to the real world. All through these years we looked at you with parents love and admiration. You have become a wonderful man out of that little boy. Your mother and I look at you and see someone who will always be loved as a son and a friend we can count on. Our love and congratulations on your graduation.

Mom and Dad

To Our Wonderful Daughter, Laura Beth,

As the song says, "You Light up my Life," which you did the day you were born, and still do. We know you will do the same for all the children who will be in your classroom in the years to come with your loving and caring way. We are so very proud of you as a person and your accomplishments. Much success and happiness. God bless you always.

*Love and Peace
Mom and Dad*

To Roxanne,

May you reach for the stars and achieve all that you strive for. We're so proud of you.

Love,
Mom and Dad

Michael,

Finally the end is near. We have waited so patiently for this point in our lives. I cannot find the right words to express how proud I am of you. The struggle for the past four years has definitely been worth it. Who would have thought four years ago that you would be a college graduate and one that has better grades than me (let's see how you measure up with your Master's).

SERENITY NOW!!!

All My love,
Beth

Dawn,

This time you've really done it! You put your heart into this, and the results reflect the determination and pride it took to achieve your goal. With your accomplishment, you've made everyone who knows you very proud. But then again, you don't have to do anything spectacular to make me proud. You've always done that just being you.

Love Forever,
Aunt Debbie

Michael Hughes: Congratulations! Best wishes for the future and lots of love and happiness to you and Beth. Love Always, Maria

Marisa Martinelli: You are the funniest and sweetest girl. I wish you all the happiness and love you deserve. "S—t" It takes one to know one. Love Always, Maria

Melissa Martone: I'll miss you singing in the halls. You are the cutest girl! Much love and happiness. Love Always, Maria

Brendan Mohan: Best wishes in all you do. Much love with Jill and always remember how great your Mother-in-Law is. Love Always, Maria

John Roche: You are the greatest guy! I'll miss you. I wish you all the success and happiness in the world. Love Always, Maria

To Lisa,

Ever since we met you knew your goals and ambitions. Through thick and thin you always kept your head up high — even when I drove you crazy. You are not only my girlfriend and my best friend, you are someone I look up to very much. I am very proud of you and your accomplishments. I knew you could do it. Keep up the great work and congratulations. I love you with all my heart.

Grant

Dearest Dawn:

On May 30, 1976 you made us very happy parents. Since then you have not stopped making us proud of you. You're a constant reminder of everything good in our lives. You have never given us any problems and at this very happy moment in your life, we just wanted you to know how very proud we are of you. We know you will make the very best teacher because you are already the very best kid a parent could ask for. Nothing but happiness and the best life offers on your new career.

Love Always and Forever,
Mom and Dad

Dear Melly,

I just want you to know that I love you with all my heart and that I am very proud of you. I know you're going to succeed at whatever you put your mind to — you have already proven that. Two more things: Don't take S—t, and Pearl Cream Rules!! Congratulations!

With Love

Heather

Brendan,

We are very proud of you and wish you the very best in life. You deserve all the happiness in the world. Best of luck with all that you do. (Besides liking having you around, Punky, you are a good eater!!!)

Love Always,

Mr. and Mrs. P., Michele, and of course, Nanny

Congratulations Marisa!

Who'd a thought!

Love,

Mom and Dad

To our darling daughter Anna,

The day you have been working for very hard is finally here, you are graduating. We would like to take this moment to express how proud we are of you. Your hard work and many hours of studies are recognition and accomplishments for most of your goals. We thank God each day for his gift in rewarding us with a daughter like you.

We Love You,

Mamma and Papa

Dear Danielle,

Congratulations and best of luck on your graduation from St. Joseph's! We are so very proud of all your accomplishments and we know you'll make a great teacher. We love you very much and wish you every blessing in the future.

*Proudly,
Mom, Dad, and Stephen*

To my daughter Tina Cirringione,

I am so proud of you. I admire your driving ambition which is never at the expense of other people. The doors to your future are all open now, choose wisely, Your father would have been so proud. Remember, he smiles down on you everyday from Heaven.

Love, Mom

Our Dearest Ian,

We are always so proud of you and all you've accomplished. The world is yours. Go out and seek all you can. Make all who come in contact with you realize, as we all do, that because of you this world is a better place. Stay young at heart and walk tall and always remember your heart will talk volumes. We all love you with all our hearts.

Mom and "The Gang"

Jessica,

Congratulations on your graduation. We are all so proud of you. Four years ago we weren't sure if you had what it took to do well at St. Joe's, but you have surpassed all expectations that were put upon you. We know your success was due to the fact that we picked you to work in the Admissions Office (but no need to thank us). We are sad to see you go but are happy to be letting go one of the best teachers New York will have.

The Admissions Office

Dear Nadia,

One of our dreams has come true!! We know that the journey was difficult, but we had no doubt you could make it!!

Adesso che hai aperto la porta alla vita, nuovi esami ti aspetteranno, ma saprai superarli con l'entusiasmo e il buon senso di sempre, continuando a sperare nell'aiuto del buon Dio.

Con tanto amore Papà, Mamma, Danira e Zia Marisa

Linda M. Houston

An Eagle flew from North to South carrying Linda in his mouth. When he saw that she was a Precious Jewel he dropped her off at St. Joseph's school.

Dearest Linda,

I know that you will be a wonderful teacher as you are a wonderful daughter. Congratulations!

Love and Prayers.

Mom, Catherine M. O'Brien

Dear Charlene,

We, your mom - your dad - your sisters and your brother, together congratulate you on achieving your diploma. Over these last four years you have applied by working very hard. Now, you can be very proud of yourself. We too are very proud of you and wish you continued success in your future endeavors. Charlene, we love you. Congratulations!

Mom, Dad, and the Family

Dear Melly,

You mean so much more to me than anything in the world.

"So let the party and the sounds rock on. We're gonna shake it till the life has gone. Rose tint my world. Keep me safe from my trouble and pain."

"You're so money" you s—t. Love Ya

Peace Out

Irene Nebel Counseling

Dear Gene Adele,

After four years, what will I do without you? You have become such a part of the Counseling Office it just won't feel like home without you.

I wish you happiness and fulfillment in all that you do. You'll always have a friend in me.

Love,

Irene (Miss Nebel to you)

To Mel,

Congratulations on your graduation.
Good Luck in your "acting" career.

"Mom"

Marisa,

I wish you the best in your teaching endeavors. Remember that you cannot have relations with your students no matter how cute they are.

Mike

Brendan,

Best of luck in the "real world." And always remember SF #21 #23 #42

Mike

Melly,

Congratulations on your graduating. I love you and hope you get the best life has to offer because you deserve it. You make not only my heart smile, but all those around you too. I am a better person for knowing you. I love you.

Mike

Dear J.J.

Without sounding too mushy, I can still remember the day you were born and how happy I was to now have a little brother. I also think of all our vacations to Tall Timbers from time to time and wish we could go back in time and recapture those moments. You've grown up so fast and now you're graduating and I still can't figure out where the time went!?

Even though we don't live as close as I'd like, no matter the distance we will always share a whole world of love and that's something that will keep us close in our hearts and minds.

I just want you to know how proud me and Bobby are of you. We wish you all the best of luck in life and whatever road you choose. Remember, we'll always be here for you!!

I love you ... Congratulations and Good Luck.

Love Always,

Kathleen, Bobby,
and Margaret
Linda Roche

Dear Megan,

We are so proud of you and we wish you all the love, happiness and success life has to offer. You always give the best of yourself in any task that confronts you.

You will make a wonderful teacher.

May God bless you and guide you and may all of your dreams come true.

All our Love,
Mom and Dad

Dear Chrissy,

Don't ever underestimate the power of your dreams.

For anything is possible no matter how it seems.

Believe in your dreams because we believe in you!

May all your dreams come true.

*Love,
Mom & Dad*

Dear Kevin,

We are all so proud of you, our first college graduate! You have always brought us joy and laughter. We love you and know that your future will be an exciting adventure. Our wish for you is a life filled with happiness, love and faith that God will guide your way.

With Love Always,
Mom, Dad, Steven, John, Brian,
Terence, Grandma, Grandpa, Aunt
Sally, Aunt Anne, The Morans, Joe
and Nay

Mel: These last 4 years we've become true friends. Your like the sister I never had. I hope that our friendship never ends, your the only one I can really talk to. I love you. You complete me.

Brendan: We'll miss you, Rocky. You'll always be our favorite Superfriend.

Roche: Who will we have to hit on us now? We'll miss you!

Marisa: My years here wouldn't have been loose without you. Thanks so much for your love, friendship, and a sense of humor that kept me laughing even when Cloe Simpson was on my hood. I love you (forget I said that and envision my middle digit instead).

Dear Jason,

Congratulations on your Graduation from St. Joseph's and our best wishes for happiness and success in everything you do! We have been blessed to know such a fine young man.

God Bless You Always!

Love,

Mr. and Mrs. Rondello and
Stephen

Dearest Katrina,

Congratulations on all of your achievements, and your graduation from "Cool St. Joe's." We are all very proud of you and wish you the greatest of luck in your future endeavors.

Lovingly.

Mom, Dad, Stephen, and Christopher

To My Daughter Melissa,

You have grown from an adorable child into a beautiful woman I love and respect. I'm so proud of the accomplishments you've made in the last four years and the good friends you've made along the way. Enjoy your life, live your dreams, but always stay my sweet Melissa. Thank God for you "the wind beneath my wings."

Love,

Mom

To my Sissy, Well you made it!!! I only hope I will be as good a student as you are when I attend college. I know you'll excel in anything and everything you choose to do.

Love Always, Jess

Congratulations to a Special Granddaughter,

Watching you grow from the wonderful child to the special young woman you are now has been a pleasure that's meant so much more than you'll ever know. Christina. I'm so proud of you!

Love, Grandma Yolanda

Our Very Dearest Elyse: As your great love, devotion, and friendship has made our lives so wonderful, so will these qualities touch the lives of all the children you will teach. How lucky we all are! We love you.

Mom and Dad

Lovely
Intelligent
Sweet

And a college graduate.

That spells out our LISA. We love her and are so proud of her!

Our dearest Adilah,

Congratulations! You made it! Despite all of the problems and grief, you continued to climb. There were many times when you didn't have the energy or will to go on. Sometimes you worked and toiled until the early hours in the morning just to prepare yourself for the next day. And when the load and responsibilities seemed too heavy, quitting could have been a solution. But your self-will, determination and inner strength pushed you over the hill of discouragement and laxity. But what did you really expect? You're bright, intelligent and a diligent worker. And most of all, you have God and a family who loves and adores you rooting for you in the bleachers. You were destined to be successful. You're blessed and with His blessings and strength, you can do everything but fail!

Congratulations

Love, Mommy, Daddy,
Michelle and Maryam

For Jason, Megan, Danielle and Tina: You will always be a very special part of the life and history of Student Government. Thank you for your leadership which involved hours and hours of planning, hard work, anguish, joy and laughter. I hope that you will remember the laughter most of all because . . . it's all about the soap!

Sherrie

Patricia Marie, we are so proud of you. Your future students are so lucky to have you lead them toward their future goals. May God bless you and keep you safe in His care. Congratulations and good luck.

Dad, Mom, Sal, Christine, and Grandma

Melissa (the good one): Your happy face and mediation skills got us through. "Thank you" doesn't even begin to cover it. Marisa (the prickly one): Without you, there would not even be a yearbook! You were the one who cared most about this project and put so much effort into completing it on time.

My congratulations to you both!
Sherrie

Kelli, we are so proud of you! You are a very special person. If they lined up all the daughters in the world, we would still pick you! Always strive to be the best. We love you.

Love, Mom, Dad, Scooby, Matt, and Mike

Jessica, Your entire family would like to tell you how very proud we are of all your hard work. We knew you could do it. We love you with all our hearts...Te quiero mucho!

Mami, Papi, and Co.
The Gardners

M&M: "Out of suffering have emerged the strongest souls; the most massive characters are seared with scars."

-E. H. Chapin

Dear Karen, we are proud of your accomplishments to date and will be even prouder in the future. You go girl!

Love Mom, Dad, Byron, and Keith

Dearest Antonette, You will never know how proud we are of you. You have fulfilled a lifelong dream not only for yourself but for all of us. You are and always will be our little angel.

With love forever, Papa,
Mamma, and Michael

Yanira, My cousin by blood, my sister by heritage, my best friend by love, but most of all, my confidant by trust. "I knew you were going to graduate before me."

Love Gisela

God knows Bridget can best be applauded for everything she does - for being a good, loving daughter - in fact, just for being Bridget.

Love, Dad

Bridget, I'm very proud of you. I knew from the day you were born you were someone special. Congratulations.

Love Mom

LeeAnn, Congratulations on your graduation. We are all so proud of you. Your presence in the office will be missed. After all who will follow in your footsteps with your sarcastic comments and your desire to keep the floor warm.

The Admissions Office

To John, I am very proud of everything you have accomplished. I know you will continue to succeed. Thank you for always being there, not only as my love, but as my greatest friend. My heart is yours forever. I love you.

Congratulations, Rosanne

Yanira, You are the light of my life, you are the inspiration and my motivation. You are my hope and my faith. You have made a difference in everything you do, and in everyone's lives you've touched. Always be yourself.

Love, Mom

Dear Melly, Congratulations to the first Martone to finish college. Best of luck in all you do. We love you! Can't wait for the party!

With Love, Daddy, Grandma, Heather, Anthony, Beth, The Birds, and Cosmo

Kimberly, I know that sometimes you think that you need to be perfect and put so much pressure on yourself, but I wish you would realize that I'm proud of your accomplishments and who you have become. Be happy and remember I Love You.

Love, Mom

Dear Maria, Our love and prayers go with you as you begin your journey. Always remember how much God loves you.

Congratulations!

Grandma Maureen, Aunt Angela, Uncle Pat, Uncle Brian, and Uncle Michael

Dear Kelli, Congratulations! Your hard work has paid off. "Graduation" is finally here! I am happy that I am able to share this with you. "Good Luck", you are going to be a great teacher.

Love, Timothy

You came into our lives, /A beautiful rosebud of a child. / You enchanted us with your smile. / Now you're grown and on your own, / You love and you are loved by all. / Stand proud, stand tall. Angela, we are proud of you.

Angele - Congratulations! As long as you remember where we started at, we will always be happy and proud to be where we are. You have worked so hard and made so many sacrifices, and now you deserve all the best. I love you!

Ed

Dear Jennifer, We want you to know that we are so proud of you. You are very special and you deserve the best in life. We love you!

Lots of hugs and kisses,
Mom, Dad, and Denise

Dear Renee, Congratulations and best wishes on your graduation from St. Joseph's. Your days of student teaching have already rewarded you with smiles and happy faces, with more to come on your journey as the the good teacher we know you will be.

Love, Mom and Dad, Eric,
David, Uncle John, and Oma

Christina, The journey in between what you once were and who you are now becoming is where the dance of life really takes place.
Congratulations, Nancy, Frank & Lorna

Dear Kiki, Grow from what you are into what you desire to be. Live to learn and learn to live. Congratulations and the best of luck to you.

Love, Freddy, Carmen & Kids

Congratulations to a Special Niece, We are all very proud of your accomplishments, Christina. Keep up the good work as you continue your education. We're with you all the way!

Love, Ora & Angel

Dear Christina, Congratulations on your graduation. Wishing you a future filled with happiness and success. May God bless you always.
Love, Grandma Mercedes

If you think yourself a failure or you think yourself a success, either way you are right! Invision only greatness, Bridget - and the future is yours.
Love the gang at Secure

Dear Maria, We are so proud of you! You've become a warm, sensitive, educated adult, who achieved because you never gave up.
Love You Always. John, Mom, and Tori

If you can dream it, you can do it. Remember always, Kara, I'll be there to lean on. You are my heart.
Love, Mom

Maggie, Your determination, independence, and assertiveness are the things that I love and admire about you. I am very proud of your accomplishments. Congratulations and God bless you.
Love, Mommy

Maggie, "The light of our lives". Congratulations! May God bless you now and forever. We are extremely proud of you.
Love, Grandma and Pa

To John and the class of 1999, Congratulations and Good Luck.

Editors of Footprints '99.

Do You Know What Time it is?

When no else showed up for the second yearbook meeting, we knew that it was up to us to take on the job of co-editors. It wasn't always fun and games, but we do admit that there were some good times. We loved looking back on all of our memories from the last four years at St. Joseph's and we hope that you will too.

We want to thank Sherrie for all of her help and for putting up with us when we weren't being our usual chipper selves. Even though you drove us crazy at times, we love you!

We hope that this edition of Footprints has truly captured the greatest times of your lives.

*Your Co-Editors,
Marisa and Melissa*
